First, get ready to Shake it Off and belt out every word at Laser Taylor Swift (6:30 p.m.), a high energy spectacle that transforms Taylor Swift’s biggest hits into an electrifying laser light experience. From “Look What You Made Me Do” to “Our Song,” this immersive show will fill the dome with hits from all ten of Taylor’s distinct eras.

Later in the evening, audiences can settle in for Laser Michael Jackson (8:15 p.m.), a visually captivating journey that celebrates the legacy of the King of Pop. With mind-blowing laser effects synced to Jackson’s greatest hits, this show will transport viewers through space, sound, and sensation.

Limited tickets are available for each show on May 29 in MOSI’s Holloway Digital Dome Theatre, the home of Saunders Planetarium, the second-largest planetarium in the country. Both shows will begin with a live star tour of the night sky.

Each show requires a separate ticket, but guests are welcome—and encouraged—to attend both for a full evening of pop and lasers!

Tickets are limited and selling fast. Tickets are $13, or $10 for MOSI members. Grab yours now at MOSI.org.

Important Note: This show contains flashing lights that may affect guests with photosensitive epilepsy or other sensitivities.

About MOSI, Tampa’s Museum of Science & Innovation
